IV. Tournament Rules

A. Eligibility

1. Entry

- a. Any youth meeting the requirements established by the WYWABOD. All participants must complete a valid entry form (template shown in Appendix A).
- b. Age Requirements: A wrestler's age group classification is determined by his/her age on January 1.
 - i. Supplemental proof of age (original birth certificate) may be required if there is reasonable suspicion that an entrant does meet the criteria. Challenges may be made by Region Chairman or any other coach. If a coach challenges the age of another wrestler, the coach must also present proof of age for any and all wrestlers from his team in the same division as the challenged wrestler. If proof of age is not produced for any of these wrestlers, any wrestler without proof of age will not be permitted to wrestle in the tournament but may move up an age division at the sole discretion of the Region Chairman.
- c. Age Groups:
 - i. Four and Under
 - ii. Six and Under
 - iii. Eight and Under
 - iv. Nine and ten Age Group
 - v. Eleven and twelve Age Group
 - vi. Middle School Division
 - a). Wrestlers in grades 6, 7, and 8, with WVSSAC defined Middle School eligibility may participate. No wrestler with WVSSAC defined High School Varsity or Junior Varsity experience would be permitted.
 - b.) An 11 or 12 year old in Middle School may participate in either the 11-12 Youth Age Division, or in the Middle School Division but cannot participate in both events.

- c.) Regardless of age, all 7th and 8th grade students are encouraged to compete in the Middle School Division.
 - d.) No wrestlers in 9th grade or above may participate in the Middle School division.
- d. Any contestant must participate in the age group in which his/her age falls.
- i. A wrestler meeting age criteria in either the 4-U, 6-U, 7-8, or 9-10 or 11-12 Age Divisions, but over the weight limit at heaviest weight class, is permitted to compete in the next older age division at the appropriate weight.
- e. A wrestler may not enter more than one weight class at the WVYWABOD Championships or Region Tournaments. Participation at Base Weight Tournaments and Member Tournaments in more than one age division is at the discretion of the Tournament Director.
- f. A wrestler may file only one entrance application.
